FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ARNDT NAMED EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

CHARLESTON -- Ed Arndt of Mattoon has been named Eastern Illinois University's "Employee of the Month" based on his outstanding job performance.

Arndt was chosen for the award from more than 900 Eastern civil service employees by the university's Civil Service Employee Recognition Committee.

"Ed is prompt and works well with campus employees. He's a certified mechanic whose skills have proven to be an asset to the university," said Arndt's supervisor, Carl Gilbert.

As Eastern's auto mechanic, Arndt and his co-worker, Larry Lawyer, maintain in operating condition 150 campus vehicles including those used by the campus police and the university's television station staff.

Arndt, an Eastern employee for eight years, said, "It felt good to know my co-workers wanted to honor me in this way. I enjoy my job here at Eastern and feel that I have been treated very well."

He and his wife, Vicki, have two daughters, Lisa, 14, and Patti, 10.
